"Old Glory"

Tuesday Morning Flag Ceremony

I am the Flag of the United States of America.

My name is "Old Glory." I fly atop the world's tallest buildings.

I stand watch in America's halls of justice. I fly majestically over great institutions of learning.

I stand guard with the greatest military power in the world. Look up and see me, I stand for freedom!!

I am confident. . . I am arrogant. . . I am proud!!

When I am flown with my fellow banners, my head is held a little higher – my colors a little truer. I bow to no one!!

I am recognized all over the world. I am worshiped. . . I am loved. . . I am feared!!

I have fought in every battle of every war for more than 200 years. Places such as Gettysburg, Shiloh, Brandy Station, San Juan Hill, the trenches of France, the beaches of Normandy, Guam, Korea, Vietnam, Beirut, the Persian Gulf, Somalia, Croatia, Kosovo, and scores of other places long forgotten by all. . .
except those who were there for me.

I was there!!

I led my Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen, and Marines. I followed them and watched over them. . . they loved me.

I was on that small hill on Iwo Jima. I was dirty. . . battle worn. . . and tired, but my soldiers cheered me and raised me high. I was proud!!

I have been soiled. . . burned. . . torn. . . and trampled on the streets of countries that I have helped set free.

It does not hurt, for I am invincible.

The World XXI

Citizens should expect satisfaction in the completion of their position's duties. Yesterday's learning curve has been overcome and today will be incredibly fulfilling.

Ten of Wands

Even with the overall success of the day, it is still important to be wary of surrendering and admitting defeat...

The Chariot VII reversed

Again, be careful to not admit defeat or doubt yourself and your skill set. Keep willpower strong and push toward victory.

Knight of Wands

Passion and energy is strong today. Impulsiveness can be positive when pushing yourself outside your box. Be determined to succeed.

The Hierophant V reversed

Make sure to solve solutions maturely and with solid communication, avoid blatant rebellion or disobedience.

The Hanged Man XII

It is a great day to open yourself up to new ideas and perspectives. Try making a bold decision and sacrificing your comfort.

Bonus

The heavy presence of the suit of wands in all of the minor arcana cards is an indication that you should utilize your insight to take action.

Second Day in Butternut

Ambrosia Okrasinski, Butternut

Butternut held their city elections Monday morning after taking city pictures. The self-proclaimed "Butternutters" elected Bree Baird as mayor, as well as the city clerk, city treasurer, city attorney, and city judge. After being sworn in, each delegate was met with thunderous applause. During political party meetings, Butternutters showed their city spirit with short, introductory cheers. The Federalists gave a Butternut chant along with "the wave," while the Nationalists sang a song and danced in unison. During county meetings, many Butternuts were put on the ballot for various state and county positions. All of these candidates took turns delivering short speeches to the county citizens.

The city will likely be very well represented within the county of Contadt. All in all, the first full day of camp went very well for Butternut.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

When you have been alerted to a fire by either shouted warnings, the alarm, or the sensation of smoke or fire, follow the procedures listed below.

- Stay calm.
- Evacuate the building.
- Close all doors as you exit. Place a pillow against the outside of your room door when you leave so that your city counselor will know the room is empty.
- Go to the nearest exit or stairway. DO NOT use the elevator. If the nearest exit is blocked by fire, heat, or smoke, go to another exit.
- If you are trying to escape through a smoke-filled room or corridor, move quickly in a crouching position to the nearest clear exit. Place a wet towel or a wet cloth over your head and face. Breathe through the wet towel by taking short breaths through your nose. Cover your body with something that can be easily discarded if it catches on fire.
- A window drape is a useful item.
- If you encounter a fire in the stairwell and find it blocked below you, go to a higher floor, find a window and signal for help.
- Go back to your room if all exits are blocked. Close the door, wave something out the window and shout for help.
- Keep low to the floor if there is smoke in the room.
- Feel the metal doorknob before opening any doors. If it is hot, don't open the door. If it isn't hot, brace yourself against the door, open it slightly, but if heat or heavy smoke is present, close the door and stay in the room.
- If you can't leave the room, seal up the cracks around the door using sheets, pieces of clothing or whatever is available. Then hang an object out the window to attract the fire department's attention. If there is a phone in the room, call the fire department or campus security (1212) and report that you are trapped. If you have a cellphone, dial 920-424-1212. Be sure to give your room number and location.
- After evacuating, stand clear of the building and go to the parking ramp or the grassy area across from the front doors. Emergency apparatus will be maneuvering around the building.
- Follow directions of fire and police personnel.

**ALWAYS TRY TO REMAIN CALM. NEVER RE-ENTER A BURNING BUILDING TO TRY TO SAVE YOUR PERSONAL POSSESSIONS.****

WEATHER EMERGENCIES

Follow these procedures for a weather-related emergency:

- Remain calm.
- Listen for an announcement by the GCC or Badger Girls State Staff.
- In the event of a tornado warning, head to the bathrooms or basement of the building.
- DO NOT use the elevators.
- Stay away from glass windows, partitions, doors, and outside walls.
- Remain in the shelter until the "all clear" signal or announcement has been given.

If you notice any type of suspicious behavior, please contact the front desk at Gruenhagen immediately.

What is the probability that two Badger Girls State delegates have the same birthday?

Hint: Some of our counselors are math

Dynamite Cheer!

Girls State is what? Dynamite!

Girls State is what? Dynamite!

Girls State is tick, tick, tick Boom! Dynamite!

Boys State is what? Dynamite?

Boys State is. . .

Hold up! Wait a minute!

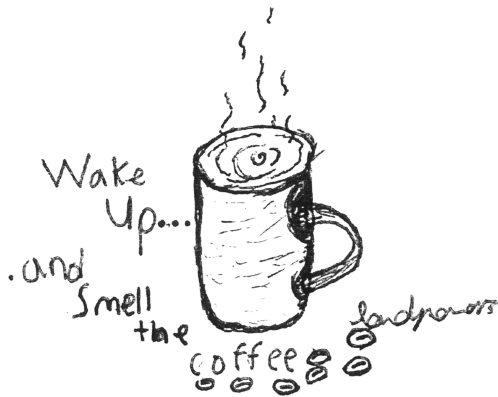

They ain't got any women in it!

This cheer is brought to you by California Girls State! Did you know Claudia Loomis and Mary Walz both volunteer with CA Girls State? Maybe you can get them to sing the cheer.

Macie Reed from Butternut wants to remind us to start the day with positive vibes. Try this daily affirmation!

Today is going to be an amazing day, and here's why

CALLING ALL CITIES

The City of Oak is looking to start a rivalry.
Nothing serious, just a good old fashion rivalry.

Some Oak girls have been heard saying that Willow would be the city they want a rivalry with.
Any cities interested in being a part of this rivalry have your reporter respond in the next edition of Badger Tales declaring the start of the rivalry.

YUMMY YUMMY POTATOES

Breaking News: The breakfast potatoes are a hit!

This morning here at Oshkosh the girls had their first campus breakfast. While there were multiple options for this morning's breakfast such as cinnamon rolls, eggs, French toast, but the most popular option was the breakfast potatoes!

This line for these were ridiculously long.
We're very happy our girls here our girls here are full and nourished for their FULL day!

I'd like to take a moment at the beginning of the week
To comment on a subject that is really quite unique.
The question is more complex than at first it may appear.
Just why is it that presidens are also called "the chair"?

The one who thought that title up must surely be aware
It doesn't boost one's ego to be likened to a chair.
It's true one may be well-upholstered, overstuffed or bare,
But just between us – I don't think that I look like a chair!

The problems really puzzled me, then finally grew clear.
A conscientious presider must function like a chair.
Some chairs are only beautiful, they're delicate and rare.
The kind that I refer to is the ordinary chair.

Can anyone imagine any object anywhere
That is more downright useful than the ordinary chair?
A chair should never squeak or sag or any way complain
But just go right on functioning no matter what the strain.

A chair must be efficient and equal to the task
Of something being "sat upon" by some well-meaning lass.
A chair should be dependable, and always well aware
It's awfully hard to sit upon a chair that isn't there.

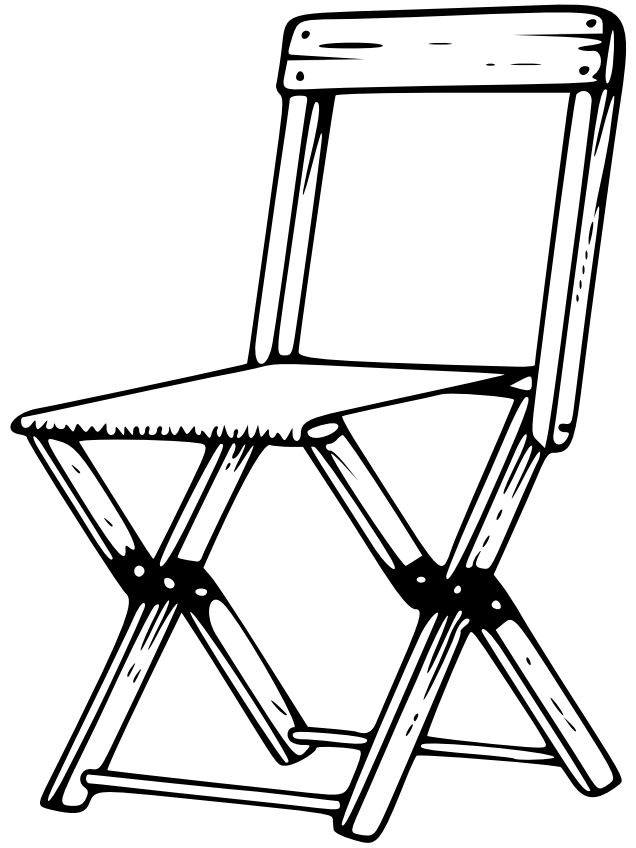

A chair should not seek privileges that it does not deserve,
But should remember at all times -- "It's only there to serve".
The proper chair will not collapse when burdened with a care,
But stand upon its sturdy feet and calmly bear its share.

The chair will not be crushed, it cannot please everyone,
But be content if it has borne the heavy weight of some.
At last there comes the moment when with worn and weary face
The chair must tactfully "take off" and find a corner place.

It needn't seek retirement in corners dark with gloom,
Just clear the place for fresher chairs that come to grace the room.
I hope I've served you well and never let you down
For surely I'm the luckiest of all the chairs in town!

You've sat on my most gently throughout the days of use.
I honestly can testify I've never known abuse.
I'll cherish every spot on me that you have given wear
And so I close these thoughts to you,

With much love,
The Chair
